

RURAL COMMUNITY CONVERSATIONS

Visit. Listen. Be a Better Resource For Your Community.

UNC Rural connects rural communities with campus members from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in mutually beneficial ways. We also provide funding and supply resources to make these partnerships more effective. The results are two-fold: stronger rural communities and a stronger Carolina.

WHAT: UNC Rural is traveling across NC to meet with rural community leaders like you. Our local partners in dozens of communities across the state are helping us coordinate a variety of meaningful meetings. Each community is unique so each community conversation will be too.

WHY: To build trust and open communication between rural partners and UNC-CH. We're working to be a better resource for rural communities across NC. Part of how we do that is meet people where they live, work and play. We hope this serves as a start to working together.

HOW: Introduce ourselves, listen to your priorities and be a better resource. In-person conversations are opportunities for you to get to know us better and for us to listen to what you love about your community and your hopes for the future. Your partnership interests will drive conversations with Carolina leadership and inform how we can better serve rural communities.

JOIN: Rural Community Conversations are coming to a place near you soon. We value your time and insights and look forward to meeting you to learn more. To learn more, visit our website using the link or QR code below and call us with any questions at 919.843.1349.
